

Last Man standing

*Sitting at the front row, watch the curtain fall, soon I will witness,
Soon I see the fall
My life on the movie screen, played by another guy, but he does all the right things that I did so wrong, that I did so wrong.*

Chorus:

*The last man is standing on the edge of the fall
My hand are reaching out to someone, The last man stands alone*

*See all these faces, so many still unknown, try to figure what they meant,
To remember them all, but they fade into the night.*

Chorus:

*The last man is standing on the edge of the fall
My hand are reaching out to someone, The last man stands alone*

Solo:

Chorus:
